Cultural Alliance of Western Connecticut

October 13, 2022

Dear Friends,

Thank you for joining the Cultural Alliance of Western Connecticut at our 14th annual "Business Supports the Arts" breakfast.

Your support enables the Cultural Alliance of Western Connecticut to advocate for the arts, as an important economic catalyst for our region. We're better able to connect business and the arts to engage more people. Your gift helps us to strengthen the creative resources in our community.

We do that through activities and programs such as conducting the Arts and Economic Prosperity Study for our region, curating arts exhibitions at local businesses, providing an on-line calendar of regional events and coordinating workshops and professional development opportunities for creative leaders and nonprofits.

Thanks to the efforts of individuals like you, organizations, and businesses, there are a wealth of creative assets that enrich our lives and make Western Connecticut a lively, thriving, and culturally rewarding region in which to work, live and play.

I would like to thank our donors and advertisers for their support, the past and present Board members of the Cultural Alliance of Western Connecticut for their commitment to this organization and arts, history and culture in our region and our Executive Director Lisa Scails for focusing the Board's efforts and providing her own initiative and creativity to advance the Cultural Alliance and the arts.

At the Cultural Alliance of Western Connecticut, the heart of our region's creativity, we are committed to strengthening all our local creative assets, individuals, and organizations. If you support the arts, you should be a member of the Cultural Alliance of Western Connecticut. With your support, we can keep businesses growing, artists performing, museums and galleries open and music playing.

Thank you again for joining us this morning.

Sincerely,

Lew Wallace

Friends,

It is my pleasure to welcome you to the 2022 Cultural Alliance of Western Connecticut's Business Supports the Arts Breakfast. The Annual BSA Breakfast, now in its 15th year, recognizes the outstanding support of businesses and community leaders who are committed to supporting arts and culture in Western Connecticut. I would like to take a moment to recognize and congratulate this year's corporate and community supporters:

- Danbury Fair for the Danbury Fair Mural Project
- Connecticut Institute for Communities and Hancock Hall residential facility - for their dedication to integrate the arts through a rotating Visuals Arts Program.

The Cultural Alliance of Western Connecticut leads the way in supporting the vibrant arts and cultural community throughout the region. By Elevating, Collaborating, and Advocating for arts and culture, the Cultural Alliance is an essential resource that is making a difference in our community. The City of Danbury is proud to work with the Cultural Alliance as we continue to celebrate and enhance the arts in our city! Thank you for your continued support.

Sincerely,

Dean Esposito
